

BURAK ERKAL

Burak Erkal was born in 1982, in Izmit/ Kocaeli / Turkey. He met with theater at early ages in Kocaeli District Theatre. He was graduated from Business Administration Faculty of Istanbul University in 2004 and started working for DHL Worldwide Express in Istanbul

He worked in Sales Department as a Cash Sales Advisor and then as a Sales Executive. After DHL he started working for Turkcell Communication Company as a Large Accounts Manager in Sales Organization.

While he was continuing corporate career and theatre at the same time, he was also interested in improvisational theatre in 2007. He participated to workshops and took part in theatre shows in YOTA Improvisational Theatre Academy, all these workshops are based on Konstantin Stanislavski's, Jerzy Grotowski's ve Viola Spolin's teachings. He also started teaching improvisational theatre after two years.

He believes in continuously development and transformation in life. In this context Burak Erkal resigned from his job in Turkcell in 2012 and built up his own business and registered trademark "Doğaçlama Kulübü" it means "Improvisation Club" Improvisation Club - Improvisation Ideas and Works welcomes everybody with this motto and offers innovative solutions in their personal and corporate life. These educations, seminars, workshops and stage performances are all based on improvisation and creative drama.

He also works with Nar Education Company, teaching people how to improv in their social and work life. So attendees explore their talents, increase their capacity, focus on positive energy and show their creativity in every moment of life. In the end all of these bring happiness. His area of expertises are Creative Communication, Sales Skills, Motivational Techniques, Team Work Team Building, Improvisational Techniques and also he is the man on the stage.

