

PAYAM YÜCE IŞIK

Payam has a passion for personal learning and growth, as well as supporting and witnessing the growth of others, relationships and teams.

She brings together over 20 years of human resources, organisational development, leadership and coaching experience through various roles she held as a human capital consultant, senior HR executive, coach and facilitator.

Her strength lies in her capability to understand the complex organisational dynamics as well as the deeper individual and systemic patterns that drive individual and group behavior.

She is an ICF accredited PCC level coach and accredited Deep Democracy facilitator who has extensive experience in coaching C level executives, senior leadership teams and in facilitating small to large group dialogues.
